

IMPORTANT INFORMATION: PLEASE READ THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION BEFORE COMPLETING THIS ADDENDUM

Obtaining a Quotation

To minimise delays in obtaining a quotation please provide complete answers to all questions in this addendum and attach relevant brochures, CVs, etc. that you believe will help us understand your business.

Your Duty of Disclosure

Before you enter into a contract of general insurance with us, you have a duty under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984, to disclose to us every matter that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, is relevant to our decision whether to insure you, and if so, the terms and conditions on which we will insure you.

You have the same duty to disclose those matters to us before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate a contract of general insurance.

Information you do not need to give

Your duty, however, does not require disclosure of any matter:

- that reduces the risk to be undertaken by us;
- that is of common knowledge;
- that we already know or should know in the ordinary course of our business as an insurer;
- that has been indicated by us as not necessary for us to know.

Non-disclosure

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure, we may be entitled to reduce our liability under the contract in respect of a claim, or may cancel the contract. If your non-disclosure is fraudulent, we may also have the option of avoiding the contract from its beginning.

Defence Costs & Averaging Provision

General Conditions within the policy provides that if your liability for any Claim is for an amount in excess of the amount of the limit of liability, then we, under Professional Indemnity and Management Liability of this policy shall only cover the same proportion of such defence costs as the limit of liability bears to the total amount to be paid dispose of the claim (exclusive of defence costs).

Claims Made and Notified Policy

The cover provided under Professional Indemnity and Management Liability of this policy operates on a 'Claims Made and Notified' basis. This means that the policy only covers you for claims made against you and notified to us in writing during the period of insurance.

Where a 'Retroactive Date' is specified in your policy schedule, your policy only covers any claim made against you during the period of insurance that arises from any conduct, act, error or omission that occurred on or after the Retroactive Date.

Section 40(3) of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) provides that where an insured gives notice in writing to the insurer of facts that might give rise to a claim against the insured as soon as reasonably practicable after the insured became aware of those facts but before the period of expiry, the insurer is not relieved of liability under the insurance contract in respect of the claim, by reason only that it was made after the expiration of the period of insurance.

The above right arises solely under Section 40(3) of the Insurance Contracts 1984 (Cth) and not under your insurance policy.

Liability assumed by you under a contract or agreement

It is not possible for you to transfer to us the entire spectrum of legal liabilities which you may be compelled to bear under the terms of a wide variety of Indemnity and/or Hold Harmless Clauses frequently inserted into commercial business contracts by principals, lessors or other parties.

Liability assumed by you under contract or agreement is only covered to the extent described in your insurance policy.

Prior to accepting legal liability for loss, destruction, damage or injury, which would not otherwise have attached to you at law, you should contact your insurance broker to enquire whether your insurance policy covers such liability or, if not, whether it may be so extended.

Subrogation Agreements

Where another person would be liable to compensate you for any legal liability for loss, destruction, damage or injury otherwise covered by this insurance, but you have agreed with that person either before or after the loss, destruction, damage or injury occurred that you would not seek to recover any monies from that person, we will not cover you under this insurance for such legal liability for loss, destruction, damage or injury.

Privacy

About Underwriting value the privacy of your personal information and we will ensure the handling of your personal information is dealt with in accordance with the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) (the Act) and the relevant Australian Privacy Principals.
